TRIP of a LIFETIME

Summer Faith Challenge

The Trip of a Lifetime is an Old Testament Journey for all families, tent dwellers and wanderers! You are invited to enter Sarah's Tent with Rebekah. Walk with Essau. Sit beside Isaac as evening fades to darkness, and explore the wilderness with Jacob.

This summer, no matter where your travels may take you, be prepared to stargaze, explore and even wrestle. Together, we will remember God's promise of blessing and grace, reclaim our identity as God's children, restore our commitments to family and community, and rest in the sabbath.

Your journey as a household begins NOW!

ABOUT THE CHALLENGE

- Each space on the board represents a single day.
- Collect points by choosing various commitments to faith, study, sabbath, service and joy!
- Record point totals in the appropriate space at the end of each day.
- New faith challenges will be distributed in worship and online at the beginning of each month.
- Play as a single person OR as a household team.

THE TRIP of a LIFETIME coincides with our summer preaching and teaching series. Each Sunday we we will gather under a large tent on the lawn for interactive, intergenerational fellowship and learning before we break out into smaller groups for study, games or even just easy conversation. There may be chances to earn a few extra points too! Sunday mornings are for all ages, young and old.

Traveling? God is with you, so don't forget your game board!

On August 27th, we will present our completed game boards in worship. Each household with a completed board will receive a special game prize for participating.
